Park City Credit Union Celebrates 78th Annual Meeting of Membership

May 19, 2016

MERRILL, WISC. – Park City Credit Union recently held its 78th Annual Meeting of Membership at the Eagle's Club in Merrill. Park City Credit Union celebrated its best year yet ending 2015 with $160.9 million in assets. The credit union also had it strongest year for new membership and loan growth while maintaining their commitment to their communities by donating to over 150 different organizations last year.

"We are beyond proud of how successful this past year has been," said Val Mindak, President/CEO of Park City Credit Union. "Park City continues to be a strong force in the Northwoods and we are excited to continue on that path as we plan for the future."

Park City Credit Union has a strong presence throughout eight counties in northern Wisconsin. They operate seven branches in Merrill, Tomahawk, Minocqua, and Rhinelander. Two branches were added in 2015 including the Dave's County Market branch in Merrill and their temporary location on Merrill's eastside next to Lee's Piggly Wiggly. Park City Credit Union is currently planning for its new facility located on the corner of Pine Ridge Ave and State Highway 64.

Park City Credit Union also recently welcomed new board of director's member Matt Boyle from Church Mutual Insurance Company, at their annual meeting. Kent Johnson and Lee Opsahl were reappointed to the board as well.

"We are very happy to have Matt on our board and are looking forward to working closely with him and our other directors as we continue to provide competitive products and services to our members," said Mindak.

Park City Credit Union is a member-owned financial cooperative providing financial services to approximately 20,000 members who live or work in the counties of Lincoln, Marathon, Oneida, Iron, Price, Vilas or Taylor, as well as parts of Langlade County.
