

Park City CU Welcomes Jennifer Nerva

Tomahawk, Wisconsin – Park City Credit Union is pleased to announce the addition of Jennifer Nerva to its lending team. Jennifer is based at Park City’s North 4th Street location in Tomahawk, and will be instrumental in developing new products and services to lead the credit union’s real estate mortgage efforts forward.

“This is very exciting news for us,” said Val Mindak, President/CEO of Park City Credit Union. “We’ve seen Jennifer’s solution-driven approach among the strong network of people she’s served in the Northwoods. It’s obvious that she loves working with people, and she demonstrates an excellent commitment to the community. She’ll fit in perfectly with the credit union concept of serving our member owners.”

Jennifer earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point with a major in Business Administration and minors in Economics and Marketing. She’s been working in the mortgage industry since 1986, including the 10 most recent years at Tomahawk Community Bank as Loan Originator.

“Park City Credit Union’s reputation of delivering a high level of great member service makes it a great fit for me,” said Nerva. “I agree with Park City’s philosophy that doing business is not just a transaction....we care.”

You’re invited to meet with Jennifer Nerva in her new office at Park City Credit Union, 1213, North 4th Street in Tomahawk. She’ll be happy to discuss the various options available for new and existing mortgages and real estate investments.

Park City Credit Union is over $137 million in assets and a member- owned financial cooperative providing financial services to nearly 23,000 members who live or work in Lincoln, Oneida, Vilas, Iron, Price, Taylor, and Marathon Counties, as well as parts of Langlade County.
