Park City Donates 121 Turkey Dinners

More than 1,000 Dinners Donated Over the 8-Year Tradition

MERRILL, WISC. –Park City Credit Union recently gave away 121 turkey dinners to families in need, eclipsing the 1,000 mark of turkey dinners given since the Thanksgiving tradition began in 2011. Each year the credit union’s members nominate their neighbors, friends or others they know in need of a traditional Thanksgiving dinner.

“At Park City we are immensely proud to support this annual tradition and to give back in a meaningful way,” said Park City CEO Val Mindak. “This is one of many ways that we are meeting our commitment to spread happiness and cheer in the Northwoods area.”

Park City staff and volunteers assemble and sort the turkeys, stuffing, rolls, pies and other fixings, leaving families with plenty of leftovers. The turkey dinners are part of the Park City Cares initiative that celebrates the credit union’s members and hometowns by completing random acts of kindness across the area.
