Park City Announces Big Game Giveaway Winner

Credit Union Donates Nearly $6,000 to Local Food Banks as Part of Promotion

MERRILL, WISC. – Park City Credit Union is proud to announce Jason Fonger of Lac du Flambeau as the grand-prize winner in the financial institution’s “Golden Big Game Giveaway.”

Fonger’s prize package includes a 65-inch LED Smart TV, panoramic sound bar system, $500 grocery store gift certificate, and party decorations.

The football-themed promotion was open to any credit union members who were approved and closed a loan of $10,000 or more between November 11 and December 31, 2019. Members were automatically entered into the drawing upon the successful closing of their loan.

Additionally, for every loan that closed during the contest, Park City made a donation to local food pantries. A total of $5,925 was awarded to food pantries in Merrill, Minocqua, Rhinelander and Tomahawk.

“Here at Park City, we love finding creative ways to give back to our community and infuse our financial solutions with a little fun,” said Val Mindak, Park City CEO. “Not only are we proud to help Jason accomplish his financial goals, but we’re also excited to help him throw an incredible Big Game party as well!”
