$1,000 Donation Made in Honor of Park City CEO

Funds to Support Those Locally Affected by Violence

MERRILL, WISC. – Park City CEO Val Mindak was recently honored by Corporate Central Credit Union with a $1,000 donation to HAVEN Inc. Mindak, who currently serves as treasurer for Corporate Central, has served on its Board of Directors since 2018.

Corporate Central said they made the donation on behalf of “Val Mindak’s remarkable service and volunteering spirit, dedication and giving heart.” Mindak chose HAVEN as her recipient due to her passion for their mission and the importance the organization plays in Lincoln County.

Merrill-based HAVEN, which stands for Household Abuse Victims Emergency Network, provides a 24-hour crisis and support line, advocacy, emergency transportation, referrals to community partners, temporary residential programs, peer support, public outreach and awareness, and support groups.

“The foundation of credit unions is built on volunteerism and improving the lives of many,” Corporate Central said in a statement. “It is in that spirit that our Directors volunteer their time to serve on the Board of Corporate Central Credit Union. We all know all too well the incredible challenges brought on by this unexpected year, but it’s times like these that truly bring us together as a movement... ‘people helping people.’ We are grateful to be able to assist those that need help now more than ever.”

Corporate Central is $3.1 billion corporate credit union that is owned by credit unions to provide them with short term and long term investments.
