Park City Celebrates Minocqua Branch Renovations

MINOCQUA, WISC. – Park City Credit Union celebrated the remodeling of its Minocqua branch with a ribbon cutting and open house on January 10th.

The community was invited to join in the celebration. Attendees were welcomed with hot soup and invited to take tours of the updated building.

Park City Credit Union’s President and CEO Val Mindak explained that innovative upgrades like soundproofed offices, rotating computer monitors, and advanced cash-handling machines are a part of Park City Credit Unions’s mission to provide exemplary service to its community.

“We’ve been looking forward to our Minocqua Branch Open House,” Mindak shared. “The remodeling and technological enhancements will empower our team to better serve our members. These updates will allow us to provide more efficient service to our members.”

Added Mindak, “Our members deserve the best. The Minocqua branch is equipped to provide it to them.”

Ongoing celebrations continue through the end of the month in the form of special giveaways.

- Those who attended the Open House in person or watch Park City’s virtual branch tour on their website can enter a giveaway to win a Voice Assistant Device with Smart Plug. (Learn more at parkcity.org/minocqua-open-house/.)
- Individuals who open a Park City checking account at the Minocqua branch before Jan. 31 will receive a free T-Birds-themed debit card. A $5 donation will be made to Lakeland Union High School for every T-Bird debit card opened. (Learn more at parkcity.org/minocqua-open-house/.)
- Individuals who close on a new loan by Jan. 31 can be entered to win a robot vacuum. (More information can be found at parkcity.org/fresh-look/.)
