Park City Credit Union Now Open in Wausau

MERRILL, WISC. — Park City Credit Union’s new, full-service branch is now open in Wausau. The branch, located at 2100 Stewart Avenue, Suite 100, features a full lobby and drive-up services, a 24/7 Interactive Teller Machine (ITM) and a full team offering accounts, consumer, mortgage and commercial loans, along with investment and retirement planning. Members can stop into the lobby Monday - Friday between 9:00am – 4:30pm. Drive-up services are offered from 9:00am – 5:00pm.

“Our expansion into Wausau reinforces our promise to meet members where they are by providing accessible banking solutions,” said Val Mindak, President/CEO of Park City Credit Union. “We’re committed to delivering the Park City Credit Union difference to more communities across central Wisconsin.”

Park City Credit Union was formed in 1938. The original name was Cooperative League Credit Union. The name was changed September 28, 1971, to Park City Credit Union. The Wausau branch establishes Park City Credit Union’s sixth location, joining Merrill, Tomahawk, Minocqua, Rhinelander, and Wisconsin Rapids (inside the Wood County Courthouse).

“Park City Credit Union’s mission is to help our members fulfill their dreams while serving our communities,” said Adam Donner, Community Engagement Ambassador. “We’re so excited to give back to the Wausau area.”

In addition to sponsorships, donations and employee volunteer hours, Park City Credit Union supports its communities through its unique “Share the Care” initiative. Each month, branch staff surprise members and community members with random acts of kindness. In Wausau, the team is kicking things off with 30 Days of Share the Care.

“Bringing ‘Share the Care’ to Wausau is an exciting way to spread joy to everyone who calls this area home,” said Olivia Budzynski, Wausau Branch Manager. “By surprising people with 30 consecutive weekdays of ‘Share the Care’ acts, we’re introducing ourselves in a meaningful way and showing the community what Park City Credit Union is all about.”

To celebrate the grand opening of the Wausau branch, Park City Credit Union is also offering several promotions and giveaways. Members will have the chance to win a Blackstone grill, a kayak, a Bose SoundLink Flex II Waterproof Speaker bundle, and a Fitbit Sense 2 Advanced
